On 16 March 2017, 'royal assent' from the Queen brought into law the European Union (Notification of Withdrawal) Act 2017. This leaves the road clear for the UK government to deliver its formal notification of the country's intention to leave the European Union to the President of the European Council. It shall be concluded on behalf of the Union by the Council, acting by a qualified majority, after obtaining the consent of the European Parliament.